DATE/TIME OF RELEASE: 06/24/08 1:30 PM

NATURE OF STORY: EARLY / CAPACITY BASED RELEASE OF HIGH-PROFILE INMATE

LOCATION: Lane County Adult Corrections
101 W. 5th – Eugene OR

RELEASED INMATE: Justin James DeLoretto
AIRS # 1402935
DOB 06/22/1981

DETAILS:

DeLoretto is set to be released from the custody of Lane County Jail today after serving only one day of his 360 day sentence in the Jail. His release from custody is necessary due to the lack of available jail beds and his lower risk level as compared to other inmates in custody. He will be placed on the Sheriff's Office Inmate Road Crew Program for 21-days. Afterward, he will be transferred to being supervised in the community by the Probation Office.

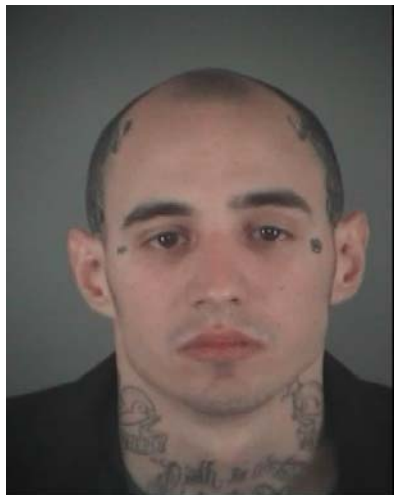

DeLoretto was sentenced on June 23, 2008 to serve 180 days for each of his two convictions of Menacing. He received no jail time for the two counts of Reckless Endangering of Another Person or the Reckless Driving charge.

DeLoretto is the President of the Oregon Mongols motorcycle club. His convictions were due to his involvement with pursuing an ATF Officer and an EPD Detective, attempting to force their vehicle off the I-5 freeway several times. DeLoretto and two other suspects had followed the officers from his residence in Turner, Oregon.

Sheriff Russ Burger will be available for calls to answer questions regarding this release after 3:30 pm today.
